CLASS SCHEDULE & COURSE DESCRIPTION 2009-2010

August 27-29, 2009

BIHT730 GREAT CHRISTIAN WRITERS OF THE TWENTIETH CENTURY by Rev. Gary Beasley. This course teaches the theological and historical impact of ten books identified by Christianity Today magazine as the best Christian books of the twentieth century. This course will inspire the student to make the reading of great books a lifestyle while highlighting the lessons contained in each of the ten books.

September 24-26, 2009

BICC150 INTRODUCTION TO BIBLICAL COUNSELING by Dr. Mike Chapman. This course examines the biblical principles of human personality and how personal change occurs. Special focus is placed on the church as God's healing institution, the unique features of Christian counseling and the development of a biblical approach to counseling.

October 22-24, 2009

BIPT341 CRUCIFIED LIFE by Dr. Sam Drye. This is a study of scriptural self-denial. It helps the student to gain a greater understanding of the centrality of the cross and identification with the death of Christ as the means to a victorious life.

November 26-28, 2009

BINT636 THE LORD'S PRAYER by Dr. Ronald E. Cottle. This is a study of the prayer Jesus taught His disciples to pray. Emphasis is placed upon the overall purpose of prayer. Each petition is analyzed for its deepest meaning and application for today is made.

January 28-30, 2010

BIBT430 THE THEOLOGY OF LOVE by Dr. David Alsobrook. The purpose of this course is to teach believers the importance of loving each other and mankind in general. The student will study love from a theological basis, discovering what love is and how to demonstrate it.

February 25-27, 2010

BIOT350 THE MINOR PROPHETS by Dr. Ian Bond. This course is a survey of the last twelve books of the Old Testament known as the Minor Prophets. It covers the history of god's people during the period of the ninth to the sixth centuries before Christ. Highlights include the historical background, the primary message and the application of each of the books.

March 25-27, 2010

BIHT622 HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY IN AMERICA II by Dr. Stephen Mansfield. This course introduces and explains the origin and growth of Christianity in America beginning with the American Revolution and ending with the 1980s. Emphasis is placed upon significant events and times as viewed from a biblical and Christian perspective.

April 22-24, 2010

BIPT606 THE THEOLOGY OF SPIRITUAL AUTHORITY by Dr. Gary Kisner. This is a study of spiritual authority. Special emphasis is placed upon God's direct and delegated authority, and His required response to each. The course will examine biblical examples of rebellion against and obedience to God's authority. Also considered in some depth are the relationships between suffering and authority, the importance of being under authority, the proper attitudes of authorities and relationships governed by authority.

May 27-29, 2010

BIPT542 THE THEOLOGY OF BIBLICAL FREEDOM by Dr. Michael Sedler. This course will help us to understand the foundations of biblical freedom. In this course each student will gain a clear understanding of the barriers to finding freedom and how we can walk a straight path toward freedom. By examining the lives of several key people of the Bible, obtaining freedom in the midst of trials will be understood. This course will help each person to identify his or her own personal barriers to freedom. In addition, we will learn to develop a personal plan for walking in freedom throughout our lives.
