

Christmas Word Game

Ask each person to supply you with words to fit the explanation under the blank, and as they give you the word, write it down, in the blank. When complete, read "It Was The Night Before Christmas" to them, using the words they supplied. Don't tell them what you are planning to do with their words.

It was the _____ before _____, when all through the _____ (time of day) (holiday) (a building)

Not a creature was stirring, not even a _____. The _____ were hung (an animal) (article of clothing)

by the _____ with care, in hopes that _____ soon would be there.
(part of a room) (famous person)

The children were nestled all snug in their _____, while visions of _____ (piece of furniture) (type of candy)

danced in their _____. Ma in her _____ and I in my _____ (part of body) (piece of clothing) (piece of clothing)

had just settled down for a long _____'s nap. When out on the lawn there arose such a (season)

_____, I sprang from my _____ to see what was the matter.
(sound) (piece of furniture)

The _____ on the breast of the new fallen _____, gave a luster of (heavenly body) (element of weather)

_____ to objects below. Then what to my wondering _____ should appear, (time of day) (part of body)

but a _____ sleigh and _____ tiny _____, with a little old (adjective) (number) (animal) driver so lovely and quick, I knew in a _____ it must be _____.

(period of time) (famous person).